

Stakeholder Questions

1. What is your vision for the future of the academic and social activity on campus and the character of the physical space?
2. Describe the profile and character of the Eastfield student of 2010.
3. What actions would you initiate on campus to increase learning outcomes?
4. What attributes and functions of the existing campus are critical to future success or need to be altered for future success?
5. What criteria will you use to evaluate the level of success for the new academic building?
6. Describe the 5 most important physical attributes of a great place to learn.
7. Describe the 5 most important functional activities of a great learning event.
8. What is the most critical physical attribute required to support successful learning events?
9. In 10 words or less fill in the advertising cut line for "Eastfield Community College is.....".
10. Provide your perspective on overall campus planning and how those issues should guide the location of the new facility.