

Mission . . .

The mission of Eastfield College is to provide educational opportunities through high-quality instruction, services and programs in an environment conducive to student success in academic, technical, occupational and continuing education. Our purpose is to develop responsible citizenship, to value diversity and cultural enrichment, and to be accountable and adaptable.

The Pleasant Grove Campus of Eastfield College will be a vibrant part of that mission.

"With the planned arrival of DART rail to Pleasant Grove scheduled for 2009, we are excited about the new [Eastfield College] campus, and how together, we can contribute to the community."

Ms. Janie Pena, Assistant Vice President for External Affairs for Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART)

"Our new Pleasant Grove location represents a partnership with the community and is a place where students can come to begin their college careers and build a better future."

Dr. Carol Brown, Eastfield College President

"Southeast Dallas will be qualitatively better because Eastfield is here...welcome to the Grove, Eastfield College."

*Dr. Shirley Wesley King, President,
Weed and Seed*

"With the new Eastfield College Campus location so convenient, children who live in Pleasant Grove will now be able to continue their education after high school much more economically."

Ms. Erma Saracho, Senior Coordinator, City of Dallas Office of Economic Development

"The opening of Eastfield College will allow every citizen an opportunity for higher education."

Mr. Carl Raines, Proud Graduate of Eastfield College and Chairman of the Southeast Dallas Chamber of Commerce

"Your presence is the best opportunity in our community to fully embrace the power of collaboration within all ages and groups. We are proud to be in your association."

Kenneth T. Durand, President and CEO of C.C. Young—sponsor of Umphress Terrace Retirement Housing, Pleasant Grove

Community Advisory Councils

Leaders from Pleasant Grove Campus and East Dallas will consult with the College's administration staff to ensure that the Pleasant Grove Campus provides services that meet the community's needs.
