Grading Criteria

Written Tests:

A total of four written tests in Spanish will be given over different readings. These tests will be essay format in which students will support their ideas in Spanish with specific examples from the readings.

Oral Presentations:

Two oral presentations will be given:

1. The students will make a presentation in Spanish of a current event related to any Spanish country, followed by questions from the instructor. (The article should be from a newspaper/magazine/internet).
2. The students will present a short story in Spanish followed by questions from the instructor (This could be an anecdote related to a personal experience or something that happened to someone else. It could be happy or sad).

NOTE: For the two oral presentations, the students will not be allowed to have notes, outlines or any additional material in his/her hand. The student should have memorized the material.

Grading Scale

Your grade will be based on the following scale:

A = 90 – 100	D = 60 – 69
B = 80 – 89	F = 59 and below
C = 70 – 79

Your final grade will be determined y the following formula:

Grading System:

Test. (4 written tests plus 2 oral presentations).....	80%
Homework: ( 4 home works) .....	20%

Attendance Policy

The material covered is cumulative, so it is important that you turn in homework on time. All assignments will be due on the dates indicated. NO MAKE-UP. No exceptions on either home work, written tests or oral presentations.

Withdrawal Date and College Policy

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a "W". Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: <https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops>
